

ABOUT

CHRISTOPHER JACKSON

Christopher Jackson is currently living with his mother in Aylett. He works for county waste in Mechanicsville. Chris has a 3-year-old son who plays soccer, swims, loves to dance, and is in the youth choir. They attend Mt. Sinai Baptist Church.

He applied to our program because he wants to have space to raise his son in a safe and stable home. Due to the cost of living, he was not ready to leave King William, but he realized it was time for change.

Chris is most looking forward to having good neighbors! He would consider himself a man of few words, but he is thankful for his friends and the community support. He is excited to build this new future with Hanover and King William Habitat for Humanity.
